Marion Local K-8 Principal, Nick Wilker, submitted the following report:

Kindness Week was held November 24-28; Fr. Mark Hoying visited the building and spoke to students about the importance of gratitude, kindness, and working together. We also rolled out our Kindness calendar and Complaint Free Bracelet challenges. To conclude the week,4-8th grade students paired up with K-3 students to create holiday cards that will be distributed to shut-ins and nursing home residents from the Marion Community.

Thank you to the PTO for the gifts they are giving to teachers for their classrooms.

JH Boys and Girls Basketball and Bowling have started their seasons.

Congratulations to the HS football coaches and team on their State Football title.

During collaboration this week students focused on empathy and put together donations for Miracle Clubhouse.

3-4th grade music program was held today. Thank you to Stephanie Kramer and Brad Spettel for organizing this program and preparing students for this performance.

Upcoming Events:
- Dec 20: 5th-8th grade band/choir concert, 7pm, elementary gym
- Jan 6: End of 2nd 9-weeks
- Jan 13: 4th-6th grade Flyer Pride Reward party, 12:30-3:15
- Jan 13: 7th-8th grade reward trip, all day

A. Executive Sessions

The Board and its committees and subcommittees reserve the right to meet privately in executive session solely to discuss one (1) or more of the following issues exempted from public sessions:

A. consideration of the appointment, employment, dismissal, discipline, promotion, demotion, or compensation of a public employee, official, or student

B. investigation of charges or complaints against a public employee, official, license, or student unless such employee, official, licensee or student requests a public meeting; except that consideration of the discipline of a Board member for conduct related to the performance of his/her duties or his/her removal from office shall not be held in executive session

C. consideration of the purchase of property or sale of property at competitive bidding, if premature disclosure or information would give an unfair competitive or bargaining advantage to a person whose personal, private interest is adverse to the general public interest

D. discussion, with the Board's legal counsel, of disputes involving the Board that are the subject of pending or imminent court action

E. preparing for, conducting, or reviewing negotiations or bargaining sessions with public employees concerning their compensation or other terms and conditions of employment

F. matters required to be confidential by Federal law or rules or State statutes

G. specialized details of security arrangements where disclosure might reveal information that could be used for the purpose of committing or avoiding prosecution for a violation of law

No official action may be taken in executive session. R.C. 121.22

Collective bargaining meetings between employers and employee organizations are private and not subject to R.C. 121.22. R.C. 4117.21

An executive session will be held only at a regular or special meeting. After the meeting is convened, any member may make a motion for an executive session, and must state the purpose or purposes of the session by citing one (1) or more of the reasons set forth above. If the session is to discuss a personnel matter listed in paragraph A above, the particular subject for which the session has been called must be identified in the motion. The motion does not need to name the person. Upon receiving a second to the motion and a majority roll-call vote of those present and voting, the chairperson shall declare the Board in executive session.

In keeping with the confidential nature of executive sessions, no member of the Board, committee or subcommittee shall disclose the content of discussions that take place during such sessions.

All members of the Board, committee or subcommittee are entitled to attend executive sessions. The Board, committee or subcommittee may invite any other person to attend an executive session.
