Summer building maintenance:

The maintenance staff is making excellent progress. We have made some classroom transitions due to increased enrollment in 1st grade and needing 10 total kindergarten and 1st grade classrooms. Mandy Koenig's computer lab has been moved and looks great! New carpet has been installed in the office and has made a huge improvement.

Summer school:

Summer school has been taking place. I'd like to thank the teachers who have been working with the students: Abby Bruns, Kelly Koenig, Scott Sommer, and Caitlin Homan.

Upcoming activities:

Camp Laffalot - July 18-22

Chickasaw Library Summer reading program ending party – July 29

Superintendent's Report

A. Executive Sessions

The Board and its committees and subcommittees reserve the right to meet privately in executive session solely to discuss one (1) or more of the following issues exempted from public sessions:

- A. consideration of the appointment, employment, dismissal, discipline, promotion, demotion, or compensation of a public employee, official, or student
- B. investigation of charges or complaints against a public employee, official, licensee, or student unless such employee, official, licensee or student requests a public meeting; except that consideration of the discipline of a Board member for conduct related to the performance of his/her duties or his/her removal from office shall not be held in executive session
- C. consideration of the purchase of property or sale of property at competitive bidding, if premature disclosure or information would give an unfair competitive or bargaining advantage to a person whose personal, private interest is adverse to the general public interest
- D. discussion, with the Board's legal counsel, of disputes involving the Board that are the subject of pending or imminent court action
- E. preparing for, conducting, or reviewing negotiations or bargaining sessions with public employees concerning their compensation or other terms and conditions of employment
- F. matters required to be confidential by Federal law or rules or State statutes
- G. specialized details of security arrangements where disclosure might reveal information that could be used for the purpose of committing or avoiding prosecution for a violation of law

No official action may be taken in executive session. R.C. 121.22

Collective bargaining meetings between employers and employee organizations are private and not subject to R.C. 121.22. R.C. 4117.21

An executive session will be held only at a regular or special meeting. After the meeting is convened, any member may make a motion for an executive session, and must state the purpose or purposes of the session by citing one (1) or more of the reasons set forth above. If the session is to discuss a personnel matter listed in paragraph A above, the particular subject for which the session has been called must be identified in the motion. The motion does not need to name the person. Upon receiving a second to the motion and a majority roll-call vote of those present and voting, the chairperson shall declare the Board in executive session.

In keeping with the confidential nature of executive sessions, no member of the Board, committee or subcommittee shall disclose the content of discussions that take place during such sessions.

All members of the Board, committee or subcommittee are entitled to attend executive sessions. The Board, committee or subcommittee may invite any other person to attend an executive session.

D. Informational Items

1. SUMMER PROJECTS/CLEANING/MAINTENANCE

The maintenance and custodial personnel are continuing their work this summer preparing the district facilities and equipment for the 2022-2023 school year. I would like to thank them for their hard work. Currently the parking lot sealing has been delayed to rain this past week, the elementary gym floor is still in limbo with us trying to get it on the schedule, the fence has been installed around the elementary propane tanks, and the locker room and training rooms floors have been prepped and ready for new installation.
